

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

LOUISVILLE SEMINARY

The Doctor of Ministry program strives to reflect the Church's vocation to bear witness to the grace of the triune God as shown in Jesus Christ, and continues Louisville Seminary's long history of reaching across cultural, racial, and religious divides. The DMin program strengthens the connection between theology and ministry practice in the Church or in fields closely related to the mission and witness of the church, while fostering the spiritual and professional growth of participants. Core professors work with experienced practitioners to build face-to-face communities of learning in which students study cutting-edge theological, biblical, and practical bases of ministry; share collective wisdom, curiosity, and experience; and complete a Research Project that informs and enhances their current ministry.

An advanced, professional degree, the DMin is designed for experienced practitioners who have a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent from an ATS-accredited school, along with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and at least 3 years of experience.

The program is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and the Association of Theological Schools (ATS).

3
YEARS

36
CREDIT HOURS

PLAN OF STUDY

The Louisville Seminary Doctor of Ministry degree is a 36-credit-hour program consisting of a series of four Foundational Seminars, at least three Advanced Practice Elective Courses, and a final Integrative Project that addresses a significant issue in ministry. The program is designed to be completed in three years.

TRACKS

BLACK CHURCH STUDIES

The DMin in Black Church Studies is designed to offer a flexible, advanced program of training that leads to doctoral-level competence in a wide variety of areas for Black Churches: preaching, pastoral care, Christian education, evangelism, congregational redevelopment, and community organizing. The program is designed to enhance critical theological thinking and reflection skills that are then used to inform current or proposed ministry practices.

PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

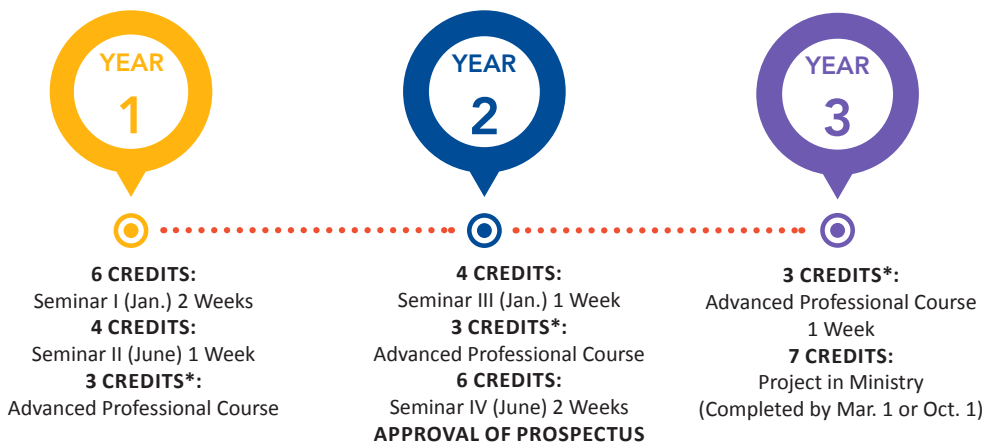

The DMin in Pastoral Care and Counseling (PCC) is designed to offer a flexible, advanced program of training that leads to doctoral-level competence in the practice of pastoral care and counseling.

ADVANCED PRACTICE OF MINISTRY

The DMin in Advanced Practice of Ministry is designed to offer a flexible, advanced program of training that leads to doctoral-level competence in a wide variety of areas: preaching, pastoral care, Christian education, evangelism, mission, worship, congregational development and redevelopment, and community engagement. The program is designed to enhance critical theological thinking and reflection skills that are then used to inform current or proposed ministry practices.

NEW TRACK COMING IN JANUARY 2021: CONGREGATIONAL REVITALIZATION AND COMMUNITY ORGANIZING

SCHEDULE

NOTE: Advance Professional Courses (APCs) may be taken any time throughout the year and do not necessarily have to correspond with the DMin Seminars. Advanced Professional Courses may not be taken prior to DMin Seminar II without the written permission of the Associate Dean. Graduation occurs in December or May.

TUITION AND OTHER ESTIMATED EDUCATIONAL COSTS:

$ 11,500	Total tuition for the entire program
$ 2,000	Books and incidental costs for 4 seminars and 3 elective courses
$ 2,100	Housing at Laws Lodge for 6 weeks of seminars @ $70 per night
$ 800	Food, with 2 meals per day on campus
$ 16,400	Total plus travel expenses

SEPTEMBER 1
APPLICATION DEADLINE

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
WWW.LPTS.EDU/DMIN

LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
1044 Alta Vista Road | Louisville, KY 40205 | 502.992.9373 | www.lpts.edu